Zebras Class ~ as some of you may know, Mrs Parkes is expecting her first child in the summer. Whilst this is joyous news, I know that you will be wondering about arrangements for covering her absence. Although I cannot give you a definitive answer to this question at present, because there are some details to iron out, this is something that we are putting a lot of thought towards and I can assure you that the options that we have involve teachers that we know and have absolute faith in. As soon as I can, I will let you know our plan.

Volunteer Drivers ~ if you think you will offer to help drive children on visits, sports events etc please could you come to the school office and sign a new Volunteer Drivers Form for 2017.

After School Clubs ~ please note there will be no Football and Netball clubs on Monday and no Badminton Club on Wednesday next week due to staff training.

Weekly Sports Roundup ~ it has been an exciting week for sport. Mr Ayre was back teaching Basketball to KS2 on Monday. On Wednesday it was Cross Country at Par where all the children competed really well. Congratulations to Naomi for coming 2nd, Iestyn 7th, Lucas 6th Lolie 10th, Isabelle 11th. Everyone had a great race in the cold. On Friday some of the years 3/4 went to a Badminton Festival at Newquay. The whole school is taking part in Class Yoga; ask your child what they think.
