Sports Roundup ~ unfortunately the Netball & Football matches to be held on Tuesday at School against Lostwithiel had to be cancelled due to the weather. This will be rearranged in the new year. Par Cross Country did go ahead just ahead of storm Ciaran. The runners were brilliant, coping well with the wet and muddy conditions. Well done everyone who took part.

If you would like any of your gardening questions answered by a panel of local experts including the Hairy Horticulturist & Dahlia Dave come to St Ewe Village Hall on Saturday 11th November at 4pm.

Please email advance questions to:

There are a few free tickets available at School reception
(first come first served)

Book your slots for:

Reserve your spot at the Santa's Grotto today! The sign-up sheet is at the school reception. Please complete the form with your child's name and age, as well as your own name and contact number. To ensure a smoother experience, kindly try to keep family groups within the same time slot. Since our slots are limited, we may request single children to join groups to prevent any disappointment. The fee for each child is £3, and every child must be accompanied by an adult. Please make payment to Sally when reserving your slot.
