Sports Roundup ~ the Netball and football league matches took place at home against Bishop Bronescombe on Tuesday. The netballers played well and had great fun but the Bishop Bronescombe players were all very tall! The year 5/6 footballers played extremely well and won their match. Well done.

Mr Sleep took the runners to the final Par Cross Country session on Wednesday. Unfortunately due to a variety of issues they turned up just as the year 5s race was starting. Though they missed their race, at the end of all the races the year 5s were allowed to run and their times will be used to place them in the actual race. All the runners ran extremely well and Mrs Sampson would have been proud of the effort they put in.

The Lions had their last rugby session with Neil, the Cornish Pirate Coach. They have really enjoyed these sessions. Today's was rather muddy! Zebras will begin their coaching sessions after half term on Fridays.

Free Piano ~ if you are interested in a free cottage style piano - not too big but a lovely sound please let Mrs Dowling in the school office know. A family in Gorrans Haven have one that they no longer need; you would just have to collect it.

A poster for Cornwall Cricket's Half Term Holiday Camps. The background is black with yellow and red accents. At the top, it says 'Half Term Holiday Camps' in yellow and white. The Cornwall Cricket logo, featuring a seagull and a red cricket ball, is in the top right. There are three main sections: 'Softball' (yellow background), 'Hardball' (red background), and 'U13 Indoor Comp' (red background). Each section includes details about the camp, a QR code, and a price. The 'U13 Indoor Comp' section also includes the location 'At Cornwall Cricket Centre, Truro College Campus, Truro, TR1 3XX'. At the bottom, there is a red cricket ball and a yellow cricket bat, with the text 'To book scan the QR Code or use the link in the text' in a cursive font.
