Sports Roundup ~ cross country at Par took place this Wednesday and again it was very muddy but the children ran with smiley faces and gave a lot of encouragement to each other. They were all brilliant and tried their hardest. The year 5 girls are still at the top of the team leaderboard (out of 14 schools) which is amazing and there were some great individual results as well.

Looking for fun, active childcare this February half-term?

Our Multi-Activity Camp is open 16–20 February; welcoming children aged 6–12 from all Cornish primary schools.

Running 08:30–17:30 each day, it's perfect for working parents, with a full day of excitement for just £36 per child, per day.

Kids can expect an action-packed programme including bubble football, street surfing, swimming, and a variety of ball games—all delivered in a safe, supportive, and energetic environment. A brilliant way to keep children active, social, and smiling all week long!

Booking through our website available here: Multi Sport Activity Camps : Sir Ben Ainslie Sports Centre
